Mockingbird Chapter 11
Maycomb was an old town, but it was a tired old town when I first knew it. Scout is describing her home early in the novel. This line serves a dual purpose. On the one hand, it provides a sense of the town. Maycomb is old, but in the 1930s it was also tired. On the other hand, the line also signals to the reader that the narrator is looking back on her memories of an earlier time and a place that may have changed since the events she's describing.
