LibriVox recording of The Soul of Prayer by P. T. Forsyth. Read in English by Paul Mazumdar. "The worst sin is prayerlessness," states P.T. Forsyth at the start of this work on prayer but follows this up with the suggestion that the study of prayer is itself a prayer to pray better. He then brings together his dual roles as theologian and pastor to unpick the nature and the practice of praying, sometimes challenging, sometimes affirming but always thoughtfully and insightfully.

The Soul of Prayer by P.T. Forsythe

Our prayer is the note the tremulous soul utters when its chords are smitten by Him. We then answer above all things God's prayer to us in His cross that we would be reconciled. God so beseeches us in Christ.

The Soul of Prayer - CHAPTER V

The Soul of Prayer - CHAPTER III. All religion is founded on prayer, and in prayer it has its test and measure. To be religious is to pray, to be irreligious is to be incapable of prayer. The theory of religion is really the philosophy of prayer; and the best theology is compressed prayer. The true theology is warm, and it steams upward into prayer.

The Soul of Prayer - CHAPTER III

The Soul of Prayer provides a concise overview of New Testament prayer (in 95 pages) from the perspective of Scottish clergyman Dr. P.T. Forsyth. The author penned this work while Great Britain (including its Christian population) languished under the dark clouds of the Great War (i.e. World War 1).

For thoughtful people, how they pray for the soul is governed by how they believe God acts. So, for example, if they believe God changes people's souls so that they make new and right choices, then they will ask God to make those soul-changes through evangelism and nurture. But not everybody is thoughtful about the way they pray.

How to Pray for the Soul — Yours or Another's | Desiring God

O LORD God almighty, I pray Thee, by the Precious Body and Blood of Thy divine Son Jesus, which He gave with His own hands upon the eve of His Passion to His beloved apostles to be their meat and drink, and which He left to His whole Church to be a perpetual sacrifice and the life-giving food of His own faithful people, deliver the souls in purgatory, and especially that one which was most devoted to this mystery of infinite love that it may with Thy divine Son, and with Thy Holy Spirit ...
